

Zeitschrift für junge Religionswissenschaft

- Guidelines for authors -

Spring 2006

---

These guidelines give some suggestions on how to prepare and format articles to be submitted to »Zeitschrift für junge Religionswissenschaft« (ZjR). If you have any queries, please contact the Editorial Board.

---

Abstract

---

Articles are always published with an English abstract. Furthermore, non-English articles submitted should also contain an appropriate non-English abstract.

Abstracts should not exceed 250 words and should give readers information about the content of the article as well as indicate the main results.

Article length & formatting

---

Articles should not exceed 7,000 words (including figures and references).

Please consider the following style:

- Paper format: DinA4
- Font family: Gandhari Unicode (<http://depts.washington.edu/ebmp/software.php>)
- Font size: 12
- Line spacing: 100% (single-spaced)
- Alignment: justify

---

Citation

---

How to cite:

- Please use Guillemets («citation») in order to indicate your quotes. If your text contains large quotes, please indent the line.

Example:

Ut enim ad minim veniam, quis nostrud exercitation ullamco laboris nisi ut aliquip ex ea commodo consequat.

»Duis aute irure dolor in reprehenderit in voluptate velit esse cillum dolore eu fugiat nulla pariatur. Excepteur sint occaecat cupidatat non proident, sunt in culpa qui officia deserunt mollit anim id est laborum.«

- Use brackets to indicate insertion and deletion.

Example:

Dieser Text besitzt [zahlreiche] Einfügungen. Nichtsdestotrotz müssen Auslassungen, die oft genug in Zitaten [...] vorgenommen werden müssen, entsprechend angegeben werden.

- Use single quotes for quotes within quotes.

Example:

»Dieses ›Zitat‹ befindet sich in einem im Zitat«

Footnotes/ Notes:

Footnotes should be avoided as far as possible. They should be numbered consecutively and included at the end of the article after the references. Please mind the difference between footnotes and endnotes.
